MRS. DANIEL CAMPBELL WITH
PARTY OF GRAND OFFICERS
TOURS THE STATE

Mrs. Daniel Campbell, Grand Chaplain of the Order of the Eastern Star, who, with her fellow officers has been touring the State with the Grand Matron and Grand Patron in their tour of inspection of chapters, has had a very busy week. She has recently returned with them from a ten days' visit to chapters at Oceanside, San Diego, and the Imperial Valley. Everywhere they were royally received and entertained and the trip was of special interest to Mrs. Campbell because it was her first sight of the Imperial country, which she found a wonderful place. The party included twenty-five to thirty officials headed by Grand Patron Pierce and Grand Matron Marshall.

Their calendar the past week was a full one. Monday night they were the special guests at a dinner given by three chapters which joined in honoring them. Tuesday they visited the largest chapter in California, the "Fosgate," which joined a smaller chapter, "The Rosecroft," in giving them a delightful dinner at Hotel Clark before the chapter meeting. Tuesday afternoon the Grand Conduress gave a beautiful luncheon to eighteen officers at her own home in Los Angeles. Wednesday the Patrons of 1917 gave a luncheon at the Union League Club in Los Angeles in honor of the Grand Officers who were entertained the same evening by the Alhambra Chapter. Thursday they were given a splendid dinner by our own Glen Eyrie Chapter and Mrs. Campbell declares with pride it equaled in brilliancy any entertainment they have received anywhere. Friday evening they enjoyed a delightful dinner given by the Pasadena Chapter at Hotel Maryland, with a supper afterwards at the home of Patron Rainel of the Southland Chapter at Pasadena. Saturday afternoon a theatre party had been arranged, but was called off. Saturday night a reception was tendered them at the Knights Templar Commandery at Pico and Figueroa in Los Angeles.

Today, Monday, the Grand Matron and party go up the coast but will return on the 31st to institute the new chapter at Burbank. After that she will be met by the Grand Officers at different points in the State and will go as far north as Humboldt county. Mrs. Campbell is not prepared to say whether she will be able to accompany her on all her journeyings or not. It is strenuous work but she is enjoying it as they have been beautifully entertained wherever they have gone. She says she has never experienced such beautiful hospitality as has been their portion and she is proud of the order. All the chapters they have found in the most flourishing condition and a fine spirit of good fellowship everywhere. At the Pasadena dinner Friday evening and reception Saturday at least fifteen were present from San Diego.

The Grand Matron and Patron have been the recipients of beautiful gifts. Mrs. Marshall receiving Saturday evening a handsome solid silver tea and coffee service, and Mr. Pierce a beautiful chest of silver.

INDICTED FOR GRAFT

UNEXPECTED TREATMENT OF
SUBJECT AT CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH LAST NIGHT

Rev. Clifford Cole in his sermon last night in the Central Christian Church referred briefly to the indictment found against Los Angeles' mayor and expressed the hope that he may prove himself entirely innocent. But, he said, whether Mayor Woodman is proven innocent or guilty the indictment holds against the liquor power, gambling and houses of ill-fame. It is these evils, tolerated by all city administrations that incite to graft. When these are put down, absolutely, by the strong hand of the law, then there will be nothing to tempt city officials to sell their honor. The liquor evil is so strongly entrenched and so powerful that a section of our great labor union association is contemplating a "no-beer, no-work" strike on July 1st, a complete tie-up, if the Prohibition law is put into effect. When the speaker exclaimed: "Any man who makes such a threat as that is a traitor to his country," he was greeted with a spontaneous burst of applause. The sermon throughout was a plea for law enforcement and for a higher standard of official life.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Stohler have bought the property at 339 W. Colorado and located in Glendale. Mr. Stohler is working for the Telephone Company in Los Angeles.

GLENDALE DUGOUT

NAVY AND ARMY BOYS ENTHUSED OVER NEW ORGANIZATION

Capt. Drew Nicoles will preside at the meeting tomorrow evening in Elks' Social Hall to organize a "Dugout" of the Allied World War Veterans, a new order which it is expected will bind the boys in bonds of closest unity. There will be some mighty fine speakers present, among them Sgt. Bob Robinson, former member of the Coast Artillery and later a Liberty Loan speaker; Gunner Depew, whose narratives of experiences in German prisons have thrilled so many, and Capt. Yankee Phelps, G. A. R. man, who was one of General Grant's official scouts. It is to be hoped that every army and navy boy in the lower San Fernando Valley will be present to hear these speakers and learn of the plans of the order.

JOSEPH SCOTT

WELL-KNOWN ORATOR SECURED
TO SPEAK AT PALACE
GRAND THEATRE

The Catholic Club of Glendale have secured Joseph Scott, noted Los Angeles attorney and orator, for an address in Glendale next Monday evening. Mr. Scott was on the western battle front while the war was in progress and has some very interesting things to relate about our boys over there. His faculty for telling his story in a fascinating way is well known for he is a man of more than local reputation as an orator. There will be other high class features on the program also, all for the small charge of twenty-five cents.

TO BE SEEN AT PALACE GRAND

One of the strongest roles in which Pauline Frederick has appeared is in the play, "Paid in Full," which will be shown on the screen at the Palace Grand Theatre tonight, Monday. The Pathe News films of happenings all over the world will also be shown.

Tuesday the ever-popular Dustin Farnum will be seen in the out-of-door, breezy, western play, "A Man in the Open," in which he is said to be at his best. There will also be a comedy, Harold Lloyd, in "Wanted—5000."

TROUBLE FOR J. J. BANTA

Trouble has accumulated for John J. Banta, the real estate operator. For twelve weeks his wife has lain at the point of death in a Los Angeles hospital with no hope of recovery. That he might not be alone in his trouble, his sister, Mrs. Silfies, came from Modesto about two weeks ago to be with him and was almost immediately taken seriously ill. She is better now and he hopes is out of danger.

NEW COLONIAL HOUSE

J. J. Burke, the contractor, reports that affairs are looking up in his line; that the shortage of houses is inclining persons who want to live in Glendale to buy and build so they will not be in danger of being ousted from a rented home.

He has begun the execution of a contract for the building of a house at 532 North Louise street for Homer D. Lockwood. It will be colonial in style and will cost in the neighborhood of $3,200.

FOOTHILL CLUB

LADIES SEW FOR BELGIAN CHILDREN AT HOME OF MRS. ELLIOTT

The Foothill Club had a very happy meeting Friday afternoon when Mrs. J. Walter Elliott, 1005 North Central avenue, opened her home to them. The decorations of spring flowers added to the cheer of the occasion.

The Foothill Club was organized some years ago as a social organization, but they patriotically took up Red Cross work when the need presented itself and Friday afternoon was spent in fashioning garments for the Belgian children. A dainty lunch was served late in the afternoon.

The members of the Foothill Club now number twenty. Mesdames Everette K. Barnes, G. K. Barnes, C. H. Beggs, C. H. Crawford, W. C. Cutler, Perce Curtis, E. E. Dana, J. Walter Elliott, Wm. E. Hewitt, A. M. Hunt, Julius Kranz, George Larkey, Mary J. Oliver, W. S. Porter, Alfred F. Priest, Chas. H. Toll, W. P. Thompson, J. B. Tabour, E. B. Wiley and Miss Ellen Williams.

WAR DECLARED BY HUNGARY

BOLSHEVIK TROOPS, UNDER COMMAND OF EX-GENERAL GEORGY, CROSS DNEISTER RIVER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, March 24.—Allied monitors have started up the Danube River from Belgrade in an attempt to reach Buda Pesth, following the declaration by the new Hungarian soviet government that a state of war exists with the Allies.

Diplomatic dispatches today said that Allied and American representatives in Buda Pesth are safe, although there has been fighting there.

Communication between Serbia and Vienna has been interrupted. A dispatch from Basle reports that General Georgys, commanding 70,000 Bolshevik troops, has crossed the Dneister River and entered Galicia. His army is composed largely of Hungarian and Bulgarian forces which the Russians captured during the war. He is following the route of the Lemburg-Buda Pesth railway.

The Hungarian soviet government sent a wireless message to Lenin, asking military aid against the Allies. They addressed him as "Chief of the Universal Soviet." Lenin replied that Russia would be delighted to aid Hungary and would keep in touch with the military situation.

CALIFORNIA NATIONAL GUARDSMEN

REACH NEW YORK TODAY ON TRANSPORT MATSONIA AND WILL BE SENT AT ONCE TO CAMP KEARNY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, March 24.—The transport Matsonia arrived today with 1,508 men and 59 officers of the 160th Infantry and 12 officers and 823 men of the 159th Infantry. They are all California National Guardsmen, most of whom saw service in Mexico. They will go to Camp Kearny immediately for demobilization.

A hospital train left New York today for Camp Kearny with 100 wounded. The train will make a brief stop in Los Angeles.

CZECHO-SLOVAKS TAKE A HAND

ARMY OF THEM SAID TO BE MARCHING INTO HUNGARY, WHICH HAS DECLARED WAR ON ALLIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

London, March 24.—Buda Pesth dispatches today said that Hungarian soldiers had disarmed an Allied detachment near Buda Pesth.

It was officially announced in Buda Pesth that the Czecho-Slovak army is marching into Hungary.

WORLD SITUATION "FULL OF DYNAMITE"

FORMATION OF INTER-ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE TO COPE WITH BOLSHEVIKI IS SUGGESTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Paris, March 24.—Many officials here believe the world faces an infinitely more serious situation than it did a year ago when the Germans started their big offensive. They declare that instead of military defeat, economic, social and financial collapse is threatening.

Experts agree that every day's delay in the signing of peace brings the general crisis nearer, and there was a tendency this morning to view Hungary's action in forming a soviet republic in alliance with the Bolsheviks as a real crisis. Many admitted that the Bolshevik menace has been increased one hundred fold.

One leading authority pointed out that everywhere in the world a year ago every one was either working or fighting. He declared "everything now is headed for stagnation and disorder unless speedy counter action is taken." He criticised the peace conference for a constant tendency to drag in extraneous questions.

Other authorities believe that Hungary's action furnishes the answer to why Germany has been dilatory and obstructive in her attitude toward the peace conference. It is believed that Germany may now offer to protect Europe against Bolshevism in return for milder peace terms.

It was admitted everywhere that the situation is full of dynamite and that it may get far beyond the control of the Allies unless immediate action is taken. One suggested solution is the formation of an inter-allied expeditionary force to cope with the Bolsheviks in Central Europe.

WOODMAN TRIAL TO BE SET TODAY

HE DECLARES HE WILL NOT ASK TO BE RELIEVED OF HIS DUTIES UNLESS INTERESTS OF CITY ARE AFFECTED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Los Angeles, March 24.—Mayor F. T. Woodman issued a statement at noon today saying that he will not ask the city council to relieve him of his duties as mayor. He said he would stay on the job as long as his personal affairs would permit, unless it should appear to him that it would be for the best interests of the city for him to retire.

District Attorney Woolwine indicated today that the trial of Mayor Woodman could not be completed before the May primary election. It was estimated that the trial would take six weeks. The date for the trial is to be set late today.

SONG FEST IN FRANCE

SERG. OWEN EMERY WRITES
OF DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL
EVENING WITH COMRADES

A charming letter which gives an insight into the doings of our boys over there and their longing for the social side of civilian life has been secured from Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of this city. It was written by their son, Sergeant Owen C. Emery, of Co. C, 316th Ammunition Train. The Corporal Baker mentioned in the letter is undoubtedly Corp. Roger Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baker of Brand boulevard, who is quite a musician and who has written of the same affair, also saying that a number of the Glendale boys are in the company. Murray Durham and Ormond Bradley are with them. Recent dispatches indicate that the 316th will leave St. Nazaire about the 31st of March and be sent from New York to the Pacific Coast and Camp Lewis where it was mobilized, with parades in Seattle and Tacoma.

Ngent-le Rotrou,
Feb. 18, 1919.

Dear Folks:—

'Tis 11:00 p. m., but I have just had such a pleasant evening that I must tell you. Yes, it was, I believe, the most enjoyable evening spent in France.

Sgt. Lunt and I, on Corp. Baker's invitation, went to the French home where Capt. Rutton (formerly head of the Div. Motor Shops) is living, for a little music.

Capt. Brace of the Supply Train Infirmary, who has many times taken care of this company when we were without medical attention, dropped in, bringing his violin. Later Lieut. Kiefer, now head of the Motor Shops, came, also Sergt. Smith of the Supply Train came a half hour later.

We adjourned to the parlor of the French home, and there met the Mr. and Mrs., and their daughter.

Sergt. Lunt played the piano and Corporal Baker the violin. I sang some. Also Lieut. Kiefer played the violin.

Suddenly Capt. Brace said: "Let me at the piano, I'll play them something and they'll sing." The minute he touched the keys I knew he was an artist. He started off with "Just a Wearyin' for You." Of course, I sang. Gee, it made me think of Aunt Josephine.

From that he wandered to "A Perfect Day," "The Rosary," operatic thing. Sergt. Smith sang, too. I selections, and he can play rag-time as well as classic.

I happened to be in pretty good voice. We sang and played every (Continued on Page 3)

THE OPEN GATE

FIRST OF UNIQUE SERIES OF SERMONS PREACHED AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

"The Open Gate" was the theme of a unique service last night at the First Methodist Church, where the Rev. Chas. H. Scott is giving a series on texts suggested by the art windows of the church. Preceding the sermon Mrs. Meagher sang "Beyond the Gates of Paradise," all the lights of the church were turned off, and a strong light was turned on outside of the window which pictures the open gate of Heaven. While the eyes of the congregation were turned toward the illuminated window, two scripture texts were announced, "And the gate of it shall not be shut at all by day, for there shall be no night there" and "Behold I set before you an open door, and no man can shut it."

At the morning service the Jubilee of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society was celebrated, and a thank offering for its work was received amounting to $320.00.

It was announced that on Wednesday night of this week there would be sixteen simultaneous church socials held in as many different homes of the church, and in different parts of the city. One feature of each of these socials is to be a Methodist Minute Man's speech of five minutes, which is their regular limit. There are now 53,000 Methodist men enlisted as Minute Men, and one of them is supposed to give a five-minute talk on the Methodist Centenary Movement at each gathering the Methodists hold.

Each person in the church is to be invited to one of the socials by the host, and an effort will be made to get an one hundred per cent. attendance in each group. Reports of the attendance are to be made next Sunday. A list of the homes and hosts will be printed in the Evening News Wednesday.

J. E. Peters and family motored to Buena Park, yesterday, and spent a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Berkey.

SCHOOL ELECTION

TAKES PLACE FRIDAY, MARCH
28TH, AT GLENDALE UNION
HIGH SCHOOL

Citizens who are interested in the public schools of Glendale and that should include the whole voting population, must not forget that next Friday they will be called upon to vote for a member of the Board of Trustees of City Schools to take the place of Mrs. Charles H. Toll, who has so capably filled the office as President of the Board, and who refused to be a candidate for re-election. Mrs. Arthur Brown has consented to be a candidate and no contest is expected as she is eminently fitted for the position and the desirability of having a woman on that school board is not questioned.

Mrs. Brown was a teacher before her marriage and therefore well acquainted with school problems. Her husband has been principal of the McKinley School, Los Angeles, for a term of years, she is a mother and has therefore kept fresh her interest in school affairs and her knowledge of modern conditions and methods. Also, she is a woman of marked executive ability who has served as an official with satisfaction to her fellow workers and credit to herself in many organizations, notably as president of the Federation of Glendale Parent-Teacher Associations. At the present time she is doing splendid work as Chairman of Home Service for the local Red Cross Chapter. It would be difficult to find a better candidate for the office, and she has the unanimous indorsement of all the P.-T. A. organizations of the city.

There is also a vacancy to be filled on the High School Board caused by the expiration of the term of office of C. W. Young, who refused to be a candidate for re-election. Mr. Young is from the Eagle Rock District and the candidate selected to succeed him is Mrs. Gardener of Eagle Rock, who has the warm indorsement of that city and of all who know her and her abilities.

While, as above remarked, there is no contest so far as known for these offices, electors should show candidates the courtesy of casting their ballots and not let it appear as has sometimes happened that the office has been won by default. It is one in which there is little glory and much responsibility, and candidates who are willing to serve at least should receive some proof of appreciation on the part of voters.

Voting will take place at Glendale Union High School and the polls will be open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

THIRD LECTURE

DR. CHAS. EDWARD LOCKE TO LECTURE TONIGHT ON VITAL SUBJECT

The Ministerial Association is most pleased with the reception accorded the first two speakers in the course on "Christian Fundamentals" and are confident of a crowded house tonight to greet Dr. Charles Edward Locke, well-known pastor of the Los Angeles First Methodist Church. His subject, "The Christian Sabbath," is one much commented on just now, in view of the failure of the legislature to pass a Sunday closing law, so what he has to say will be very interesting. The lecture is free. Begins promptly at 7:45 this evening in the High School auditorium.

YELLOW LUNCHEON

Mrs. Kathryn Smith, 311 North Kenwood street, was hostess at a pretty yellow luncheon, at which covers were laid for eight on Friday. Yellow acacia bloom centered the table and the color note was repeated in yellow butterflies which floated above the table, in place cards, favors, and menu.

The guest list included Mrs. Rebecca and Miss Jennie Lacy of Highland Park, former residents of Glendale; Mrs. H. D. Goss, Mrs. C. W. Burket and Mrs. Charles H. Scott of Glendale, Miss Isabel Isgrig and Mrs. Griffin of Los Angeles. Music and social conversation occupied the ladies during the pleasant afternoon they spent following the dinner.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

The Burbank-Glendale Center of the County Farm Bureau will meet tonight, Monday, March 24th, at 8 o'clock, at the Burbank High School. An interesting program has been arranged for the session which will include a talk by Mrs. Jessica Hazzard, the Los Angeles County Home Demonstration Agent, who was so well known in connection with the food conservation movement during the war.

Mrs. Isadore Tompkins of Green street, who underwent an operation recently at Thornycroft, is doing nicely.

The meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, which takes place tomorrow, and for which a very fine musical program has been secured, will be followed by a social hour and refreshments.

Wm. R. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Anderson, of 126 North Louise, has received his discharge at Camp Kearny and has come home.
He was in Company H, 1st Infantry, which was stationed at Camp Lewis, Wash.

H. L. Segar and wife of 437 Ivy accompanied by their cousins, Mr.
and Mrs. G. Wendleshafer, of St.
Peter, Minn., who are touring California this winter, spent the weekend at Santa Catalina Island and report a most delightful trip.

Jason Hidden, who has been residing in Burbank for the past year, is now living in Glendale. He has a long record of service with the Ridenour-Baker Grocery Company of Kansas City, Mo., of whose bookkeeping department he was in charge for fifty years.

Jesse Smith of Ford Agency fame took more than the prescribed width of Broadway at Louise street to turn a new touring car Monday forenoon and collided with an electric light standard. Jesse says a little girl in the road caused the trouble. Very commendable act on his part. However, it has not been Jesse's habit to always keep away from the girls.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mussetter of Victor, Iowa, who have been spending three months in California, and one month of the time in Glendale, left today for their home with the intention of stopping en route for a few days in Riverside. They are much delighted with the Golden State, especially that part of it included in Glendale's limits, and they are planning to come again next winter.

RAINFALL RECORD
Saturday evening's rainfall was .12 of an inch, bringing the season's total up to 11.44 inches, just 6 inches less than last year's total at this time.

UNITY CHAPTER
Will have rehearsal Monday evening, March 24th, at 7:30.

PLEASANT MUSICAL E
Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson of 214 East Chestnut street entertained
Wednesday with a musical evening.
Carnations and violets were properly bestowed in the decoration of their pretty home for the event and it was a delightful affair for all concerned.
their guest list including: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, Miss Ina Whitaker, Mrs. Whitaker, Mrs. Mabel Ca-pell, Col. and Mrs. Fraser of Hollywood, Mrs. Coddington and Mr. and Mrs. Wells of Los Angeles. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

played and sang, "I Love You Truly."
But Capt. Brace is surely a wizard and such an accompanist. You know, the kind that just makes you sing.
And modulation! I started to play and sing "Annie Laurie." At the end of the first verse, he said, "Let me play it for you—and a key higher." (for it was a little low). Then he started in with wonderful modulation. It was good if I do say it myself.
At one time he said, "Now, I'm going to play a National air. You're all good Americans, but I'll bet a cigar you can't tell me what it is."
He then played an air with wonderful modulations. Ending he said, "Now, what was it?" Of course, we all knew, "My Country
'Tis of Thee." "You're wrong, I win the cigar," he said.
"What do you think it was?" Why, Yankee Doodle!"
Then something happened which I venture to say you would never find again. We soldiers sang to his beautiful, modulating accompaniment,
"Jesus Lover of My Soul." And I'm happy to say that we knew it.
Then, Dad, he played an air which you hear only in the Third Degree.
Capt. Rutton and I knew it, the rest did not—for a good reason.
It was some music fest—a real treat!
When we started to go the dining room doors were opened and the table set, with tea and cakes. A few evenings like that would surely shorten the time over here.
We are yet in the same place, but conditions are looking better. We may start soon if the Peace Conference doesn't turn things upside down.
Your son and brother,
OWEN.

Two dinners are scheduled to take place this week at the Central Methodist Church of this city. At the first one which comes off Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, the Sunday School Board will entertain the Sunday School Board of the Tropico Presbyterian Church. Covers will be laid for about forty. Miss Edna Phillips, Mrs. D. Reichard and Mrs. P. O. Lucas will have charge of the affair.

Friday evening a still bigger dinner will be served to officers of the Epworth League organizations of all the Methodist Churches in the city and to the district and sub-district officials. Plans of future work will be discussed and speeches will be made by visiting officials.

Fred Richardson, of Central and Cypress avenues, reports that the Victory Campaign conducted Sunday afternoon by the Tropico Presbyterian Church brought a tremendous increase in pledges for the year over any thing previously experienced and church officials are immensely encouraged. They can see a bright future for their organization, and are already making big plans for the coming year. On account of the absence of some members it was not possible to cover the entire enrollment, but enough were reached to give positive assurance that the church will reach its objective, its apportionment being $1000 for benevolences and $2000 for local church expenses.

THE THIRD LECTURE
Of the Series on "CHRISTIAN FUNDAMENTALS" WILL BE GIVEN
Monday Evening, March 24th
IN THE
Glendale High School Auditorium
DR. CHARLES EDWARD LOCKE
The outspoken pastor of the First Methodist Church of Los Angeles, will deliver the lecture, which is on a most timely and vital topic:
"THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH"
There is a wide difference of opinion in California on Sabbath or Lord's Day observance, and Dr.
Locke will treat the subject from the Biblical standpoint. The appearance of this popular speaker will undoubtedly draw a crowded house, so come early to secure a seat.
ONE MORE LECTURE TO FOLLOW
